Footnotes

FACT CHECK reached path three before departing the backstretch, sat perched keeping watch on the front runners, crept up as the half was being completed, turned into the stretch and issued a challenge from approximately path five, began the final furlong narrowly in the lead, momentarily came out after a solitary left side shot a sixteenth later, got corrected and held sway. NO REGRETS prompted the pacesetter towards the second path, was called up taking on the leader as they spun into the lane, doing so three wide, fought its way to a slim lead, was in turn reeled in by the top one soon afterwards, went onward with enough energy to protect the place. SOURCE CONTROL sat reserved taking up the chase in path two from between foes for the opening half, was put to a hard drive stepping into the lane, got staved off. FORTYTHREEOEIGHT N tracked the pace taking the inside route for a half, got sent to the outside for the drive home, gained ground racing six wide afterwards. JEGOS FIRE stumbled after making contact with the left side of the starting gate, travelled two to three wide on the turn and made no impact. HOPPER DROPPER remained along the rail once the field had been sent on its way, was rank pulling hard on the bit for much of the opening half, got checked coming up to the quarter pole, angled to the outside a sixteenth later, lacked the needed response when put to stronger handling. BLINDED VISION grabbed the advantage after making light contact with GUN FOR HIRE, got rated showing the way accompanied by the second place finisher, was put to a drive heading into the top of the lane, yielded then steadily backed away. GUN FOR HIRE guided over to the inside route after brushing with BLINDED VISION at the start, remained there after leaving the backstretch, was briefly steadied past the five-sixteenths marker as FORTYTHREEOEIGHT N was himself vacating the premises, came into the stretch and had no rally. BUSS THE BELL three wide entering the turn, was fanned out into path six exiting it, trailed.
